avenues for India's exports to these countries in order to secure redressal of trade imbalance to the extent possible. Promotional measures include sponsoring of trade delegations, extension of credit facility on a selective basis and participation in trade fairs.

Special courts for trial of management of Industrial Units

1679. SHRI CHATURANAN MISHRA: Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Central Government have issued any directive to certain State Governments to set up special courts for the trial of the managements of industrial units which default in Provident Fund deposits; and

(b) if so, what are the details in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P. A. SANGMA): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The State Governments of Bihar, Karnataka, Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh, Orissa and West Bengal have been addressed to designate one or two courts, at certain specified places in their States, where there was large pendency of prosecution cases, as Special Courts for trying Provident Fund cases exclusively.

Workers' participation in public Sector undertakings

1680. SHRI CHATURANAN MISHRA: Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that consequent upon the declaration of the original 20-Point Programme in 1976-77, Government announced the extension of the scheme of workers' participation in commercial and service organisations in public sector;

(b) if so, which are the public sector commercial and service organisations, including hotels, which have already implemented the workers' participation scheme at different levels and in particular those which have not implemeted the scheme upto the Board level so far; and

(c) what efforts are being made by Government to make the 'Participation scheme' a compulsory one at least in the Central public sector enterprises with immediate effect?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P. A. SANGMA): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) The Scheme of Workers' participation was reviewed and in December 1983, the Government notified a comprehensive scheme. A Tripartite Committee comprising of the representatives of the employers, trade unions and the Government was also set up to review the working of the scheme and to suggest remedial measures. According to information available, 94 public sector enterprises have already implemented the scheme at shop floor and plant level. A list of the names of those enterprises is given in on enclosed statement I-(See below). Further seven public sector enterprises have appointed trade union leaders on the Board of Directors (Statement-II) There is no proposal before the Government at present to make the 'participation scheme' compulsory.
